Actor or actress, set designer, electrician, best boy, or grip - in la-la land, it pays not to be human. Vampires, succubae, trolls, elementals, goblins - studios hire anyone and anything that can take direction, be discreet, and not eat the extras. (The less you know about your agent, the better.)

Though only human, stuntwoman and struggling actress Lee Striga is a member of the legendary Katz Stunt Crew. They're the best in the biz, in part because they can fly, and boast superhuman strength. When Lee lands a job on the movie Pale Dreamer, however, not everyone is following the script. It's up to her to figure out who - or what - is killing the cast and crew. Especially when Lee goes from stuntwoman to lead role... and the next target.

She crosses paths with Cam, a young warrior of a tribe from Roman Britannia, and together they struggle to survive - only to be imprisoned by Cromwellian soldiers. All humans have neurids – organic chips that record your entire life – implanted in their brains at birth. After 'death', billions of people will read your life and vote on whether you deserve to be cured. Who needs god when moral behaviour is encouraged by social media?

On the planet of Gehenna a hyper-intelligent but socially challenged boy named Alef meets Pellon Hoq, the son of a crime boss whose empire spans the system. Over the course of two decades the friends become the worst of enemies, as Pellon Hoq is driven mad by his own mortality, and Alef seeks to find an answer that will prevent a terrible tragedy.

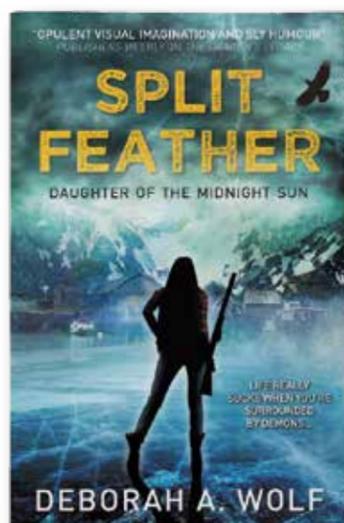

On the planet of Bleak in the endless sea amidst the great rigs that extract the planet's core, Raisa is working on a story for TruTales, a Song site that sends her all over the system in search of lives to write down. When a lawman she has been interviewing is drawn into a string of murders, Raisa begins to suspect that her AI handler for the site has a plan for her.

The Rig is an SF thriller with two alternating narrative strands that draw perfectly together. One strand traces the story of two boys bound terribly together; the other explores an apparently insignificant murder that opens into something far greater.

THE SYNAPSE SEQUENCE

DANIEL GODFREY

JUNE 2018, FANTASY, 384PP

In the near future, everyday life is dictated by algorithms, from who gets a bank loan or a job, to what supermarkets sell and which news stories you read. Even policing is run by AIs, who track patterns and predict where crimes are likely to occur.

Anna Glover joins a start-up company that hopes to revolutionise solving crimes by combining the memories of witnesses into a virtual reality simulator that can be explored by an investigator. Her first case is that of a fostered teenage boy put in a coma by a brutal assault, and she begins to explore his memories, the only witness to the crime. But when the boy's sister disappears and Anna's own actions are called into question, it becomes clear that there are other motives in play, and there are those who do not want her to succeed...

NEW POMPEII

DANIEL GODFREY

AVAILABLE, FANTASY, 464PP

Jurassic Park meets Gladiator in this stunning debut. Classic time-travel Sci-Fi with an extraordinary alternate history twist, reminiscent of Crichton's Timeline and Christopher Priest's The Adjacent.

Sometime in the near future, energy giant NovusCorp has developed technology which can transport objects and people from the past to the present day. The company's biggest secret is that they have moved the lost population of Pompeii to a replica city, hidden deep in central Asia. For post-grad historian Nick Houghton, the chance to study these real Romans is incredible. But he soon realises that although the Romans are ignorant of modern technology (for now) they are far from easy captives. Pompeii city boss Marcus Barbatus wasn't appointed by the emperor because he was soft. The Romans carved out the biggest empire the world had ever seen, thanks to the uncompromising leadership of men like Barbatus. The stage is set for the ultimate clash of cultures...

'An intriguing spin on the Westworld/Jurassic Park template, this debut marks Godfrey out as an author to watch.' Financial Times Books of the Year

MORIARTY: THE HOUND OF D'URBERVILLES

KIM NEWMAN, AVAILABLE, Crime, 496PP

Imagine the twisted evil twins of Holmes and Watson and you have the dangerous duo of Professor James Moriarty – wily, snake-like, fiercely intelligent, unpredictable – and Colonel Sebastian 'Basher' Moran – violent, politically incorrect, debauched. Together they run London crime, owning police and criminals alike, and unravel mysteries, all for their own gain.

'It's witty, often hilarious stuff. The author portrays the scurrilous flipside of Holmes's civil ordered world, pokes fun at "guest stars" from contemporary novels and ventures into more outré territory than Conan Doyle even dared.' Financial Times

'Kim Newman has done something really audacious with Conan Doyle's criminal genius... The notion of reinventing Moriarty and Moran as malign doppelgangers of Holmes and Watson may have been done before, but not with the firecracker exuberance that Newman brings to it.' The Independent

'A masterful and often disturbing updating of the traditional haunted house story given a modern twist by an author who continues to push the limits of every genre.' Stephen Jones, World Fantasy Award-winning editor
